Legislative and Management Team Updates– Deputy Director Loraine Wodnik

The MDOC is getting the EPP process ready for the next legislative session. The Department has put in our budget requests. The budget requests have gone from 3 pages down to 1 now. Loraine stated that she thinks that the Department is going to have a very lean session. The Department continues to seek peace officers status for the investigators. Riverside and Pine Hills do not have a clear definition in statute so we are starting to draft the language to broaden the definition of State prisons and revise the youth privacy act. There are also some changes we are seeking to allow us more discretion for the DOC commits.

All of our facilities are full and it is a never ending challenge. We are continuing to look at this. The parole division is realigning their areas. The Regions will be re aligned as of July 1st. The department is going to make a transition office to help with the overcrowding in the county jails. Warden Kirkegard offered if anyone wants a map of the new districts to let Sally know and she will get it to you.

We are moving right along with the PREA audits and CCC was the first to receive their accreditation. MWP has completed theirs, the audit at MSP is going on this week. Loraine also acknowledged there have been a lot of changes in the last couple years. Personnel wise it has been a big shift and there is wave of staff still eligible to retire.

Division Updates –Warden Leroy Kirkegard

The pilot project, of taking offenders from 18 to 25 years old in at Pine Hills, is going good. Riverside is now taking female youthful offenders. MSP is still down 17 officers. Medical has had a lot of offenders that are severely ill. The PREA audit started today. The lead auditor is from the Oregon Attorney General's office. Pat Sheehan has been having things fixed as the auditors have been bringing them to our attention. Associate Warden Wilson will be teaching the philosophy of reentry across the state. Amy Barton is the MSP PIO/VIO and if you have any questions for her, don't hesitate to ask. On Thursday May 26th, Leonard Mihelich is retiring and Jim Salmonsens will be taking over his job duties. Leonard and Jims positions will be combined into one.

Discussion of Inmate Release & Travel Funds- Kurt Aughney & Angie Carter

Angie Carter wanted to thank CCC's IPPO's and the CCC staff as they have been helping with setting up the requirements for the release funds. Travel assistance is where they usually hit a snag. If an offender had less than 10 dollars they were allowed up to $100 out of the gate money. Kurt Aughney stated that indigent status was only if the offender has been indigent more than 30 days. Occasionally the costs for out of state releases would come out of the global fund also. Warden Fender commented that there was a lot of debate over when the assistance comes. The assistance is supposed to go directly to the providers such as landlords, treatment providers, etc. Transportation costs will now be going under the global fund. The gate money will help with the release assistance for food and miscellaneous items.

Warden Kirkegard wanted to know if they buy the bus tickets directly through the IWF global funds. The answer was the IPPO's are paying with their Pro Cards and those costs/receipts will be charged back to the IWF global funds. Warden Kirkegard said that whenever possible we should have the offenders families pick them up. Pat Schlauch commented one of the problems is keeping track and receiving the receipts for these charges. IPPO's will need to document this well on the Pro Card logs and attach the receipts.

Pat asked Kurt to clarify for all, will this be spelled out clearly in policy 1.2. 12 and the form put in as an attachment?

Kurt replied, yes that Michele Morgenroth will be working on a draft for all of this.

Discussion of Inmate Compensation- Michele Morgenroth

The committee met in April on inmate compensation. Warden Fender said the CCA contract requires so many offenders in job assignments. He asked is there a way can make it more incentive based. Michele stated that there were different incentives that the committee said they could give out for Life Skills and the GED/HiSET. The committee had not chosen anything but stated that it would have to be equitable. Other things to consider would be to make sure it would work for offenders with disabilities. Warden Kirkegard and Pat Smith asked if the committee discussed the treatment program. They had not worked through it that far. Warden Kirkegard suggested to have one more meeting with just the Wardens, even a phone conference to discuss the inmate compensation. Michele said she will set up a meeting in June.

Inmate Property & Canteen Reviews- Warden Kirkegard

Warden Kirkegard stated that he thought every couple months the security chiefs could get together for the inmate property and canteen reviews. Not everyone wanted to do this and it has been a struggle in the communication process. Warden Kirkegard says we are in the process trying to make it a better process and will continue to try to get something that works.

Suggestions for the canteen were to allow 3 different varieties of meat. Warden Kirkegard asked if there was a problem allowing the different varieties of Raman noodles. All agreed that the canteen could rotate the varieties of these products from time to time like they do for candy bars as long as the limits stayed the same. Another change was grape drink put on for religious reasons. Connie Winner was concerned with the sugar intake. The drink packets are supposed to be sugar free. The offender would have to show that he is designated for the religion that it was put in place for. Canteen will control these. A list of religious items and issues was presented to the PIB members for consideration by the RIC committee. No one had any issues with the items presented.

Warden Fender motion to approve all of the above

Warden Green – second the motion

All approved.

Warden Daly-Shinners stated that she has a list of suggestions the women offenders would like to see. The list of things the female offenders want was Q-tips, hair clips, body wash, instant rice, Splenda and hair color. Pat Smith stated that when we started making the property consistent, we lined out the list that all facilities would use. A few of the products are gender specific, but all had agreed to keep this list very small due to equity issues. Pat suggested on this list of items that MWP inmates would have to wait till the next year when we go through the annual process as the policy dictates. All agreed.

One consistent problem that was brought up is not being able to order the small portable radios. The reason they were taken off the canteen list was because the mp3 players were being introduced. They were supposed to have the radio as an option. Travis Harris stated that it would be easier/cheaper for all inmates to purchase the small portable radios. Pat Smith said that the regional prisons also use these for the cellblock TV systems, so that the cell blocks remained quiet and calmer. All the facilities were interested in looking into getting the small clear portable AM/FM radios back onto the canteen list. Warden Fender suggested that they might want to wait until the tablet discussion is done, but others mentioned that may take a while. Warden Kirkegard did not have any issues with it. Gayle said that she would research what was available and get it to the group. If everyone liked whatever radio she finds, we could put it out to an e-mail vote to see if the radios go back on canteen.

Roundtable Discussion on Inmate/Facility Issues

Budget- Pat Schlauch

Pat Schlauch wanted to inform everyone that Budget Division is having their yearly financial compliance audit. MCE was audited this week and MSP will be the next one on the list. He also stated with the EPP process that it is down to one page and is very basic stuff for the session. During the last session it did not look good for budget requests, but in the long run it did not turn out as bad as we thought.

He wanted everyone to know with the Medicaid expansion law, and the change in our claims processor it has been a little bit bumpy with Xerox making the payments. It is going to be 6 months before we get everything straightened out. The heaviest problems should be over by now.

DCCF – Warden Tom Green

Warden Green stated that DCCF is having a hard time finding a LAC for the CD and horse program. The green house is up and running for the year. Warden Green said it has been a little difficult with staff turnovers and that they are down to 6 original staff members from when the Dawson County Correctional Facility opened.

CCC- Warden Douglas Fender

CCC has 20 vacancies. Reasons for the staff shortages are school, family and the military. CCC is trying to recruit more staff, but it is still a struggle and they have 8 staff from other facilities and lots of overtime. Medical care for the offenders has been hitting the CCC facility hard. In recent weeks CCC has required two life flights for medical issues. The facility is in the process of interviewing for the mental health position. Cecily Simon is going to be CCC's new quality assurance manager. She has been in her current position for 17 years.

Investigations – Paul Szczepaniak

Patrick Martin was hired Investigations to replace Diane Jacobs, who retired. Investigations has about 80 cases so far this year, which looks like it is going to exceed what we had last year. The incident report program will go out to command post for testing first and then the regional facilities once IT is ready with the program.

MSP- Warden Leroy Kirkegard

Charges were filed on a former employee for bringing in drugs at MSP. Patrick Sheehan is finalizing the new locked housing policy. Max custody levels will go from 0 up to 5. Pat Smith stated within the 5 levels of Maximum Custody, the first few levels should still be able to work at the other facilities. A new recreation yard is being built on the high side. There has been a lot of work going on with the new lighting projects at MSP. There have been a lot of requests by Native Americans to come in MSP for the sweats. The Rocky Mountain Council has invited the Warden to give a presentation to the Native Americans. The PREA policies are also about ready to be published.

Montana's Women's Prison – AW Bob Paul/ Joan Daly Shinnors

MWP is doing a lot of projects facility wide. MCE has been building cabinets for MWP that are almost done. There will be painting and roofing projects in the fall. The new exterior lights at MWP are being installed. The camera and maintenance agreement is up to date. MWP is part of the City/County emergency preparedness training that takes place every two years and this year will deal with an anthrax introduction. There have been some issues with gophers on the campus. MCE has also built some planter boxes for MWP.

Joan stated that they are planting sage as part of a State cooperative work program. Correctional officer week was two weeks ago and it went well. The DNRC will be sending a crew of 6 female offenders out on fires. The PREA compliance audit is finished. MWP reviewed the grievances for the year. All but 6 offenders at the Montana's Woman's Prison have their Reentry plan. Of all the offenders that have went out with reentry plan only 2 have come back from the community. The other 58 have left and not returned. Officer McCracken has passed away unexpectedly.

GFRP- Travis Harris

Great Falls is down 5 officers and is still actively recruiting. Great Falls is still short a LAC and Hi Set teacher and are still actively recruiting. Great Falls is replacing the grout in all of the showers on the pods. Officer Leneham went to the NWGA STG conference. It was very informative. If you need additional gang information, please get a hold of our contract monitors at our regional facilities and they can share the information.

GFRP – Demetric Godfrey

Demetric Godfrey had concerns about the ongoing inaccurate treatment list. Pat Smith stated that if there are still problems with the list that you need to let Dawn Potvin in the treatment unit know. She is still learning this new position but she should be able to fix any issues you find. Demetric also stated that Great Falls has had an increase in medical grievances lately. They are probably related to a change of medical staff and their learning curves.

Quality Assurance - Kurt Aughney

The PREA audits have been going good. This week was at Montana State Prison. Montana's Woman's Prison is done. The TSCTC will be in the following days. In June all three of our youth facilities will be audited. All facilities should be done by the end of August. Security audits will start up again late summer or early fall.

Medical – Connie Winner

Connie stated that they are still working on Medicaid issues. IT is working on putting Medicaid information into OMIS. There are lots of questions on what forms to use when filling out Medicaid paperwork. All medical claims need to be on a Medicaid form and her staff will help with any training issues. The regional facilities need to make sure the MDOC managed care nurses are kept in the loop.

The MSP infirmary has had an increase of offenders with critical care medical issues. Medical parole is being looked at for some offenders. Offenders that are sex offenders have a hard time being placed in the community on medical parole. Medical is in the process of working on the Hep-C policy. Hep-C treatment is very expensive and offenders need to change their lifestyles for the treatment to work. The infirmary has started developing a basic medical issues form to use and the documents can follow the inmates from facility to facility. Dr. Rantz has been hired to review charts and files. The next annual medical meeting is scheduled for October and they will send out agendas beforehand.

CPB - Pat Smith

Pat reminded everyone that the next Emergency Preparedness meeting will be Sept 7th & 8th in Lewistown. Mr. Vaught will send out a notice and agenda to the EP coordinators.
