I. BUREAU DIRECTIVE:

Probation & Parole Bureau employees will follow established procedures when testifying in court.

II. DEFINITION:

None.

III. PROCEDURES:

Probation & Parole Officers (Officers) will testify in court in support of pre-sentence investigation reports, violation investigations, and at any other time required by a court of record. Officers should comply with the following, and review the information contained in P&P 50-1(A) Mechanics of the Courtroom, in preparation for these appearances:

- A. Be prepared before testifying: Review records, notes, chronological history, etc.
- B. Discuss case with prosecutor, including whether offender's field file should/should not be brought into court.
- C. Officers must be aware that offender files and other documents brought into the courtroom may become subject to examination by all parties:
 1. If there is not a subpoena for the offender's field file, avoid taking file. If certain documents, notes and/or specific chronological entries are needed to recall or confirm specific dates, Officer should bring additional copies of those documents, notes and/or chronological entries for possible examination by others.
 2. If Officer is served with "subpoena duces tecum," which requires the file is brought to court, Legal Services Unit at CORLegalMailbox@mt.gov should be contacted as soon as possible. If required to bring the file, Officer may be directed to also bring a complete, true and accurate copy of the file to leave with the court. (See P&P 40-1 Offender Records Access and Release.)
 3. Maintain control of the offender's file. Do not release the file to anyone other than the prosecutor except by court order.
- D. Dress appropriately; follow local judicial policy and P&P 20-6 Employee Dress, Hygiene and Badges.
- E. Maintain composure, tell the truth, and answer with facts.
