I. BUREAU DIRECTIVE:

Probation & Parole Bureau employees shall be familiar with the Interstate transfer process and will follow established procedures concerning the transfer of offenders between Montana and other states. All transfers shall be submitted to the Interstate Compact Unit of the Adult Community Corrections Division.

II. DEFINITIONS:

Interstate Commission – A commission made up of representatives appointed by the governor of each state to ensure the interstate compact is functioning per federal law and state statute.

Interstate Compact Fee – A fee paid by a Montana offender when applying for interstate transfer.

OMIS - Offender Management Information System – The Department of Corrections’ electronic data collection and reporting system.

Receiving State – The state assuming supervision of an offender at another state’s request.

Resident Family – A parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, adult child, adult sibling, spouse, legal guardian, or step-parent who 1) has resided in the receiving state for 180 days or longer as of the date of the transfer request; and 2) indicates willingness and ability to assist the offender as specified in the plan of supervision.

Resident – A person who has continuously inhabited a state for at least one year prior to the commission of the offense for which the offender is under supervision, and intends that such state shall be the person’s principle place of residence and has not, unless incarcerated, relocated to another state or states for a continuous period of six months or more with the intent to establish a new principle place of residence.

Sending State – The state requesting the transfer of an offender’s supervision.

Sex Offender – An adult who is required to register as a sexual offender either in the sending or receiving state and who is required to request transfer of supervision under the provisions of the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision.

Subsequent Receiving State – A state to which an offender is transferred that is not the sending state or the original receiving state.

Substantial Compliance – When an offender is sufficiently in compliance with the terms and conditions of his/her supervision so as not to result in initiation of revocation of supervision proceedings by the sending state.

Violent Crime – Any crime involving the unlawful exertion of physical force with the intent to cause injury or physical harm to a person; or an offense in which a person has incurred direct or threatened physical or psychological harm as defined by the criminal code of the state in which the crime occurred; or the use of a deadly weapon in the commission of a crime; or any sex offense requiring registration.

Subject: INTERSTATE COMMISSION TRANSFERS

Violent Offender – An adult offender who is under supervision for a violent crime.

III. PROCEDURES:

A receiving state may approve the transfer of supervision of an offender who does not otherwise qualify for a transfer. Before approving, the receiving state will investigate the home and prospective employment of offender. The Montana Interstate Compact Unit (ISC Unit) shall be notified by the Probation & Parole (P&P) Bureau when an offender is requesting to proceed to the receiving state if a resident or in an emergency situation.

Funds collected from the interstate transfer application fees will be used to pay for Montana's membership to the National Commission for Adult Offender Supervision.

A. Conditional Release Offenders

Refer to P&P 150-6 Conditional Release of DOC Offenders.

B. Applying for Out-of-State Transfer

Receiving state shall accept supervision if the offender:

1. has 90 days or an indefinite period of supervision at the time the sending state transmits the transfer request;
2. is in substantial compliance with the terms of supervision in the sending state; and
3. is a resident of receiving state; or
4. has resident family in the receiving state who have indicated a willingness and ability to assist as specified in the plan of supervision and can obtain employment or has means of support; and
5. has a valid plan of supervision.

C. Military Members

An offender who is a member of the military and has been deployed to another state shall be eligible for reporting instructions and transfer of supervision.

D. Offenders Who Live With Family Who Are Members of the Military

An offender who meets the criteria and lives with a family member who has been deployed to another state shall be eligible for reporting instructions and transfer of supervision provided the offender will live with the military member in the receiving state.

E. Employment Transfer of Family Member to Another State

An offender who meets the criteria and whose family member, with whom he or she resides, is transferred to another state by their employer shall be eligible for reporting instructions and transfer provided that the offender will live with the family member in the receiving state.

F. Employment Transfer of Offender

An offender who meets the criteria and is transferred to another state by an employer, at the direction of the employer and as a condition of maintaining employment, shall be eligible for reporting instructions and transfer.

G. Transfer of Supervision of Sexual Offenders

1. Eligibility for Transfer: At the discretion of the sending state, a sexual offender shall be eligible for transfer to a receiving state under the Interstate Compact rules. The offender shall not be allowed to leave the sending state until the sending state's request for transfer of supervision has been approved, or reporting instructions have been issued, by the receiving state.

2. Application for Transfer: In an application for transfer of supervision of a sexual offender, the sending state shall provide all information, if available, to assist the receiving state in supervising the offender:
 - a. Assessment information, including sexual offender specific assessments;
 - b. Social history;
 - c. Information relevant to the offender's criminal sexual behavior;
 - d. Law enforcement report that provides specific details of sex offense;
 - e. Victim Information:
 - i. the name, sex, age and relationship to offender
 - ii. statement of the victim or victim's representative; and
 - f. The sending state's current or recommended supervision and treatment plan.
3. Reporting Instructions for sexual offenders living in the receiving state at the time of sentencing:
 - a. The receiving state shall have five (5) business days to review the proposed residence to ensure compliance with local policies or laws prior to issuing reporting instructions. Offender must remain in Montana pending reporting instructions. If the proposed residence is invalid due to existing state law or policy, the receiving state may deny reporting instructions.
 - b. No travel permit shall be granted by the sending state until reporting instructions are issued by the receiving state.

An offender sentenced in the state of Montana is required to pay an interstate application fee of $50.00 which must be attached to the original, signed Interstate Offender's Application for Interstate Compact Transfer and submitted to the ISC Unit. Applications will not be processed without the fee attached. The only acceptable forms of payment are money orders or cashier's checks made out to the Department of Corrections (DOC). Offenders incarcerated in a prerelease or correctional facility may have an inmate account check issued to the DOC. The fee is paid for each application submitted. Offender will receive a receipt for the amount paid. b. The Regional Administrator (RA) or POII may determine the fee will result in a significant financial hardship to the offender and may request a reduced fee as a first option, or waive the fee as a second option. Using P&P 130-1(B) Interstate Application Fee Waiver Request, the RA/POII/IPPO will recommend approval or denial of fee reduction or waiver and submit to Deputy Compact Administrator (DCA). The DCA has final say in the approval or denial of all waivers. Any failure to pay the application fee without securing a hardship waiver will result in the application being returned. | P&P Officer
